

LE MERIDIEN BRUSSELS

A NEW PERSPECTIVE
THROUGH THE LENSES
OF ART, DESIGN,
FASHION AND CUISINE,
LE MERIDIEN CREATES
A STIMULATING,
INTERACTIVE
EXPERIENCE THAT ALLOWS GUESTS TO SEE THEIR DESTINATION FROM A
NEW PERSPECTIVE.

Right opposite the station and TGV linking Brussels to Europe's biggest cities and the airport, Le Meridien Brussels lies in the historic heart of the city. The Grand Place, with its jewels of gothic architecture, is just a pleasant five minutes stroll away, among cafés, restaurants and ancient palaces.

Inside the feel of 19th century aristocratic residence is tempered with touches of modern design in a splendid mix of classicism and contemporary sophistication.

Jermyn's Street Bar offers the reserved elegance of a London club, a place to relax and enjoy a cocktail or a light meal, with a selection of fine champagnes to suit the most discerning palate. The L'Epicierie Restaurant serves traditional Belgian and French dishes in a stylish colonial atmosphere, a journey of culinary discovery for lovers of haute cuisine.

GUESTROOM AMENITIES

All 224 guest rooms are designed to welcome the most demanding travellers with the style and spacious comfort they expect. High speed Internet access, three telephone lines and voicemail turn each room into a fully equipped office. Bathrooms in marble with power shower for the ultimate in relaxation. The top floor suites offer stunning views over old Brussels.

BRUSSELS

The capital of Belgium is also the capital of Europe. Wander through its charming streets for a tour of European architectural history, from Gothic to Baroque to Art Nouveau, or stop in a patisserie to sample the sumptuous wonders of Belgian chocolate. The Sablon quarter, next to the hotel, is home to Brussels' liveliest nightlife as well as a thousand little art and antique shops to browse for hidden gems.
